SUFFICIENT BREAD MINISTRY

Religion that is pure and undefiled before God the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world. James 1:27

Even if my father and mother abandon me, the Lord will take care of me. Psalm 27:10

ALL OF YOU WHO WERE BAPTIZED INTO CHRIST HAVE CLOTHED YOURSELVES WITH CHRIST. GALATIANS 3:27

I indeed baptize you with water...but He...will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. — Matthew 3:11

"Have I ever come to the point in my life where I can say, "I indeed...but He..."? Until that moment comes, I will never know what the baptism of the Holy Spirit means. I indeed am at the end, and I cannot do anything more — but He begins right there — He does the things that no one else can ever do"... "The only experience that those who are baptized with the Holy Spirit are ever conscious of is the experience of sensing their absolute unworthiness. "I indeed" was this in the past, "but He" came and something miraculous happened. Get to the end of yourself where you can do nothing, but where He does everything." - Oswald Chambers, My Utmost for His Highest

Please pray for these precious children of our Father in heaven. They have decided to follow Jesus. The road will be long and sprinkled with hazards, but they are not alone. The past is behind them, the cross before them. These past few years have been a wonderful time of instruction, fellowship, discipleship, and encouragement. However, inevitably there will come a time when there is no longer anyone to follow or hold their hand. They must continue on their own obeying the call of their Father, "Follow Me!"

Because of your support, we were able to purchase a "big kid" Bible and a copy of the "My Utmost for His Highest" devotional in Romanian for each of them. We also gave them a bracelet with the words "Nu te teme! Isa 41:10" (Do not fear!- Isa 41:10").

Do not fear, because I am with you; do not be afraid, for I am your God.

I will strengthen you,

I will surely help you;

I will hold you with my righteous strong hand.

Isaiah 41:10

These kids were once rejected, abandoned, abused and forgotten, "but He" holds their future in His hand. They can fear not because they are held by His strong hand.

Pray for the children who witnessed the baptism of their peers. May they also come to the end of themselves and allow Christ to be their everything.

In the same way, you also should consider yourselves dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus. Sin will have no power over you, because you aren't under Law but under grace. Romans 6:11,14

THE HOUSE THAT GOD BUILDS

Ministry House: Over 13 years ago this house was built by a missionary family to become a Christian family center. For years, multiple teams from Germany came and poured their time, money and hearts into the project. Just short of it being completed, tragedy hit and the house lay abandoned for 10 years. Everyone involved was heartbroken when they witnessed the light of life dim from the windows of the house. But God, who shines light out of darkness, who transforms beauty from ashes, HE built this house. He knew its future. We are honored to be the hands and feet that continue to build this house. The God who built this house recognized our need and provided abundantly above what we could have imagined. There is still much to complete, but by His grace, we will continue. The work is never finished until "the builder" says, "It is finished." Until then, we march on looking to the Master Builder for direction.

PRAYER & PRAISE

Praise God for the spiritual growth we have witnessed in some of the children and young adults in our care. Pray for their continued passion for God and His Word. Pray for them to have boldness to ask questions and to walk in truth.

Pray for our daily refreshment. We have many daily responsibilities and tasks. Pray for our children as they continue to work alongside us and learn the language and culture. Missionary life can be lonely. Pray for our ability to find a balance with family time and ministry.

Pray for protection, wisdom and direction in ministry.
